

Calling all Grandparents!

Have you got a few hours to spare
every week?

Do you have a love of reading?

If so, we would love to hear from you!

We are looking for a band of grandparents to come into school to help support our children with their reading. Training will be given.

If you are interested, please register your interest with Mrs. Worthington in the school office by 31st January, 2020