

History activity 2

Today you are going to draw your family tree. You can use the information that you gathered from your questions in activity 1 to help you fill in your family tree.

You can present your tree however you choose. Look at the examples below and use the Power Point to help you.

