

Y4 WRITING

Now try to write your introduction. Use the WAGOLL to help you to think about what needs to be included.

2. Introduction paragraph

This will begin the article and explain what the reader will read about. It needs to answer the 5Ws (who, what, where, when, why) to do this effectively.

Answer each W question about the giant peach growing in James's garden.

What has happened? _____

Where has it happened? _____

When did it happen? _____

Who was involved? _____

Why did it happen? * _____

* you may find that your article explains this. In this case, you don't need to include why in your introduction paragraph.

Combine your answers to create your introduction paragraph:
